WAY STOUT WOMEN

WEAR THE Nemo
SELF-REDUCING CORSET

REASONS WHY
Hundreds of thousands of stout women wear the Nemo Self-Reducing Corset and why they absolutely refuse to buy any other.

THE RETAILER RECOMMENDS IT
Because he wishes to keep the stout woman a satisfied customer. He knows, and he can explain too, why this corset is the only one that will positively reduce her figure and give health, comfort and style at the same time.

THE SALESWOMAN RECOMMENDS IT
Because the Nemo Self-Reducing Corset is a quick seller, giving uniform satisfaction, that her customers not only come back for another pair, but recommend it to their friends.

THE DRESSMAKER RECOMMENDS IT
Because it gives the stout woman the best shape she has ever had, and the correct foundation for a well-fitting gown.

THE PHYSICIAN RECOMMENDS IT
Because it gives a firm support to women who are physically weak.

THE STOUT WOMAN WEARS IT

Because she has tried the corset and found that it greatly improves her figure and reduces the abdomen so effectively that the skirt has to be taken in from 3 to 4 inches when it is worn for the first time.

THE ECONOMICAL WOMAN BUYS IT

Because it is more advantageous to pay $3.00 for the Nemo Self-Reducing Corset than $1.00 each for three ordinary corsets.

312, for the tall stout woman, of Caudill & Bates, all sizes	$3.00
314, for the short stout woman, of Caudill & Bates, all sizes	$3.00
316, for the tall stout woman, of Broadwell & Co., all sizes	$5.00
318, for the short stout woman, of Broadwell & Co., all sizes	$5.00

Mrs. Isaac Behrend was hostess Thursday, when she entertained the Afternoon the chief executive of a busy city may have on his hands. Mrs. Reburn has been a frequent and pleasant hostess here. Her musicals from time to time have been the features of the season. She also organized and chaperoned the dancing class of which Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth was a constant attendant every Monday morning at Rauscher's, and where no end of fancy steps were taught.

MRS. JOHN E. REBURN.

An unusually pleasant evening was spent at the home of Miss Ellen Andresen of 811 street northwest last Friday evening, the occasion being a birthday party in honor of Miss Ellen Andresen's birthday. She received many handsome and beautiful gifts. The parlors were profusely decorated with dogwood blossoms and snowballs, and many handsome and beautiful gifts were presented. A feature of the evening was the presenting to each guest a small souvenir, each being two of each kind, so that the gentlemen and ladies could find their mates, and upon the final finding of same, the guests were marched down to the dining room in couples. A sumptuous repast was spread before them and heartily enjoyed. The decorations and flowers were in evidence there as in the parlors. Upon returning to the former rooms the guests were invited to a surprise—a cozy room where lanterns, etc., made it especially attractive. The cozy corner room was never vacant afterward. The full membership of the Froon Club was present, and Miss Andresen was presented with a handsome rocking chair of beautiful design as a gift of the club. Among those present were: Misses Anna Berberich, J. Burgess of Hyattsville, J. Crawford of Cedar Creek, Md., the Misses Connor, Misses Julia Root, Edna Moran, Mabel Brown, E. Andresen, Annie Foley, William May, L. Manning, Mrs. Andresen, the Messrs. W. Herbert, H. Kattelman, Mr. W. H. Tibbets, who came from Baltimore, and the members of the Froon Club, Messrs. J. E. A jolly party of young ladies went on an overland trip to the coast last night. Those in the party were Miss Reita Wolf-

Bridge Whist Club at her home, 3032 N street.

The marriage of Miss Helen Rodey, daughter of Judge Rodey, formerly in Congress, and Mr. Raymond Stamm took place May 8 at the home of the bride's parents in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The bride went to school here for four years, and has many acquaintances, who will read of her marriage with interest.

The ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. John Mills Kendrick, bishop of the diocese of New Mexico and Arizona of the Episcopal Church. An orchestra played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bride and groom approached the altar from opposite directions, accompanied, respectively, by their bridesmaids and ushers. The ushers were Mr. Ralph Tischer, Kirk Bryan, Will S. White, E. J. Alger, Charles White and Sam Pickard. The bridesmaids were Miss Gladys Childers, Miss Grace O'Reilly, Miss Hazel, Miss Mildred Fox and Miss Suele Dobson. The best man was Roy Stamm, brother of the groom.

The wedding ceremony was attended only by relatives and intimate friends of the two families, but afterward a large reception from 8 to 10 o'clock was held and attended by many of the most prominent people in the city. The rooms of the Rodey residence were beautifully decorated in white, with a profusion of sunflowers and white roses. The bride looked very beautiful in her costly gown of white satin, with duchess and point lace trimmings. The bridal party of fifteen sat down to the wedding supper on the enclosed porch, which had been appropriately fitted up for the occasion with white fabrics and flowers.

A large number of wedding gifts were presented to the young couple. The most important of them were sixty dazzling pieces of cut glass, comprising salad and berry bowls, lemonade cups, trays and glasses of many descriptions, hand-painted china in profusion, Haviland china dinner set, several beautiful examples of enameled glass, Japanese and various other kinds of glassware, a fine silver service, several brass candlesticks and candleholders, a large array of silverware of all kinds, rugs, a skin of a mountain lion beautiful mounted, a fine musical chair, several large paintings and pictures and table and bed linen enough to last the couple a lifetime. One of the bed linen was embroidered and presented by Mrs. J. Coddington of Topeka, Kan., who is over seventy years of age, the grand-aunt of the bride.

The couple received a cablegram of congratulation from the bride's father, who is in Porto Rico, which was read immediately after the ceremony. Numerous other messages were received from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Stamm endeavored to evade the enthusiastic attentions of their friends when they were ready to leave for the station to start on their honeymoon trip, but the plot was discovered, and a crowd of rice-throwers, merry-makers accompanied them to the station and gave them a rousing send-off. The couple departed for a trip to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado and California. They will return June 1.

The ushers and bridesmaids received as favors small silver-spoons and monogram bonbon boxes.

Richmond Society

Special Correspondence of The Star.

RICHMOND, Va., May 18, 1907. Members of Richmond society who had the pleasure of meeting Mr. James Bryce, English ambassador to the United States, Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey, daughter of the Canadian premier, who accompanied them during their recent visit to Richmond, were charmed with their cordiality and their interest in Virginia people and its historic places.

Gov. and Mrs. Claude A. Swanson entertained Mr. Bryce and the ladies of his party at the executive mansion, where a dinner was given in their honor, guests invited to meet them being: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan, Mr. J. Scott Parrish, Dr. Thomas Nelson Page and Mrs. Page, Mr. and Mrs. William H. White, Lieut. Gov. J. Taylor Ellison and Mrs. Ellison, Col. W. Gordon McCabe, Mrs. Henry Bohmer, Col. and Mrs. Archibald, Mrs. George Bete Johnston, Mr. John P. Branch, Mrs. John Kerr Branch, Dr. Stuart McGuire, Miss Carr, Mr. H. D. Flood, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton, Mr. Leigh Page and Miss Claire Leirne.

The ambassador and his party went with Gov. and Mrs. Swanson to Jamestown Island on Monday last, to participate in the tercentennial celebration of the first permanent English settlement in the United States, by the Antiquarian Association of Virginia and its guests. The day was lovely, and luncheon was served on board the steamship Tuesday morning to return to the capital.

Mrs. Henry Coulter Cabell, wife of Major Cabell of the United States army, who, with her husband and little son, have come to visit relatives and see the Jamestown exposition at Sewell's Point, was given a very warm welcome by the Richmond society.

Decay of Reverence.

From the British Congregationalist. With the agitation and controversy which have recently entered churches and assemblies convened for public worship, there has also come a tendency toward the want of reverence, which, if developed, will lead to spiritual degeneracy of no ordinary character.
